H. D. C. MacLachlan Minister of The Christian Church at Shelbyville, Kentucky,

Addressed an Open Letter to the Temperance People of Kentucky.

It is as follows.

(Advertisement)

Shelbyville, Ky., —, 1906.

An Open Letter to the Friends of Temperance in Kentucky.

I had hoped that some other persons, whose words might conceivably carry more weight, could have been induced to perform this somewhat invidious task, but as no one has come forward to do so, I feel it my plain duty, as one who has the cause of temperance at heart, to make public the following facts: I do so because the temperance cause has been injected into the Senatorial and Governor's campaigns, and Gov Beckham and Judge Hager are appealing to the temperance voter's to support them as their champion. Some time ago there were rumors of a certain check, which, if genuine, calculated, I thought, to throw light on Gov. Beckham and Mr Hager's sincerity on the temperance issue. I did not desire to act upon mere hearsay, and I did not wish to do Gov Beckham or Mr Hager an injustice. I therefore wrote Mr Hager a letter as follows:

"Shelbyville, Ky., Oct. 15, 1906—Hon S W Hager, Frankfort, Ky.—Dear Sir: I am deeply interested as a citizen and a friend of the temperance cause in the issue of the approaching primary, and as you are a candidate for the Governorship of the State and Gov J C W Beckham a candidate for the United States Senate, I feel it my duty to write to you concerning the following matters: It has been brought to my certain knowledge that in 1903, when you were chairman of Gov Beckham's campaign committee, a check was given you by Chas P Dehler on the German Insurance Bank of Louisville, and that you as chairman got the money thereon, which C P Dehler was then, and is now, secretary of the Brewers' Combination in Louisville, and also secretary of the Central Consumers' Company, the organization which manages the allied beer and whisky interests in the State. These are matters of my certain knowledge. It is alleged, however, further that this check was given you upon a distinct pledge given first by you, then confirmed by Gov Beckham himself, at the Tenth street depot in Louisville, that in consideration thereof, and of certain other payments made by the liquor people, their interests would be safeguarded during Gov Beckham's term of office, and in particular that the county unit bill should not be allowed to pass. I am also informed that the same Chas P Dehler was appointed by Gov Beckham as a colonel on his staff, and he is now serving as such, and later on received an additional appointment as a commissioner of the Lakeland Asylum. Now, I desire you, Mr Hager, to state to me, in response thereto, if the check above referred to was given you under the pledge herein stated, and whether the above facts are true, and if in any wise false, wherein are they false, as I do not desire to do you Gov Beckham an injustice in condemning you unheard. I shall be glad to hear from you within the next few days, at the close of which time I shall feel free to publish this letter, with whatever comments there on I may see fit to make. Very truly yours,

H. D. C. MACLACHLAN.

Two Voting Places.
(Advertisement.)

The vote for Congressman will be taken next Tuesday, at your regular voting place, and the vote in the Democratic primary, for the nomination of candidates for State offices and for U S Senator, will be taken in a different booth. By virtue of the rules laid down by the authorities of the Democratic party, those who wish to vote in the primary are required to first vote for Congressman, though they will not be required to state, at the primary booth, how they voted in the Congressional race. The Democratic congressional campaign committee suggests that this be kept in mind to avoid confusion.

Important Notice.

Each member of the Congressional Democratic Campaign Committee, for Garrard county, is urgently requested to act as a member of the steering committee, during the election next Tuesday, and to notify the voters, at their respective precincts, that there are two voting places, and that those who desire to vote in the State Primary are expected to vote, first in the Congressional race, and then go to the Primary booth.

Office of S W Hager, Candidate for Governor, Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 17 1906—Rev H D C MacLachlan, Shelbyville, Ky., I am in receipt of your letter of the 15th inst, addressed to Judge Hager, requesting that he advise you within three days concerning the assurances which are purported to have been given by Judge Hager and Gov Beckham to Mr Chas P Dehler in exchange for contribution to the Democratic Campaign Committee in 1903, of which Judge Hager was Chairman. Judge is absent from the city and will not return for several days. I have talked to him over the telephone in regard to your letter, and he bids me to say to you that he will not be home in time to answer your letter within the time mentioned therein, but to assure you that he never accepted any check upon his pledge to any one, nor did he see Mr Dehler or anyone else at the Tenth street depot in Louisville and made a pledge of this or any other character. Upon his return here within the week he will answer your letter. SARAH W. MAHAN, Secretary."

The failure to answer my letter by Judge Hager himself touching a matter of such importance, and the evasive letter of his secretary, makes it my duty as a Christian and a friend of the cause of temperance to now publish the facts within my knowledge. I personally saw the check referred to; it is dated Louisville, Ky., October 28, 1903, given on the German Insurance Bank of Louisville, Ky., for $3 500, made payable to S W Hager, chairman and signed Chas P Dehler; it was duly endorsed by chairman, and paid through the Union National Bank of Louisville. Now Mr Chas P Dehler is secretary of the Brewers' Combination in Louisville and also of the Central Consumers' Company, which is the political organization which is in charge of the allied beer and whisky interests in the State. It is alleged by Chas P Dehler that this check was given to Mr Hager on a distinct pledge given by Gov Beckham himself on the morning of the 28th of October, 1903, at the Tenth street depot in Louisville, and that in consideration thereof the liquor interest would be safeguarded during his (Gov Beckham's) term of office, and in particular that the county unit bill would not be allowed to pass.

Unit Bill Held Up.

It is a matter of common knowledge that this pledge was kept and the unit bill held up until last Senatorial campaign. I also upon examination found it to be true that Chas P Dehler gave the check which was cashed by Mr Hager at the Union National Bank necessarily to be used for campaign purposes for the benefit of Gov Beckham, who was then a candidate for Governor, and Mr Hager, who was a candidate for Auditor in 1905, that said Dehler was appointed by Gov Beckham on his staff and is now serving as such, and he was afterward appointed by him as a commissioner of the Lakeland Asylum. This $3 500 whisky money was received by these, now alleged friends of temperance; they, the whisky people, do not give up their money without they receive proper pledges.

Now, I am one of those who believe that there should be honor among thieves and that a pledge given to the whisky interests is as binding upon a man of honor as one given to a more righteous cause. I am further of opinion that one who will break faith with the liquor dealers will break it also with the Anti Saloon League whenever it is to his interest to do so. What the temperance people want is not trumped-up advocates of their cause, but honest men in power. Shall the temperance vote of this State be cast for men who are not only proved corrupt, but faithlessly corrupt? It is said that the election of Gov Beckham and Mr Hager will mean a victory for temperance, because it will teach politicians, of this State hereafter to respect the temperance vote.

With all due deference, it will do nothing of the sort. The politicians know very well the true wardens of the campaign, and Gov Beckham and Mr Hager, selection will only teach them the temperance voters of Kentucky may be made catspaws and playthings of for the private ends of any designing politicians who care to degrade a high and moral issue to the level of wretchedness.

Election next Tuesday.

Thursday, the 29th has been designated for Thanksgiving.

Remember the bond question when you go into the booth next Tuesday.

First vote for Congressman, then go to the other booth and vote in the State Primary.

There being no opposition to Hon R. H. Tomlinson, his is the only name on the town ballot for Mayor.

Eld F. M. Tinder will return in time to fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday at the usual hours.

Rev G. W. Young, the temperance evangelist, did not fill his appointment here Sunday, other engagement preventing.

The residence of W. B. Mason caught fire Saturday afternoon, and the kitchen was badly damaged before the flames were extinguished.

As Rev Mr Brown is engaged in a protracted meeting at Mt. Carmel there will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church Sunday.

The Richmond Business College wants fifty bright young men and women to prepare for good positions. Has just placed a number of graduates with calls for more.

Every young man and woman should enter the Richmond Business College at once and prepare for good positions. Prof Lippold has call for more graduates than he can supply. Superior advantages. Positions guaranteed.

Raw newspaper has advanced nearly fifteen cents on the hundred pounds within the past month. Everything used in a printing office is higher than ever known, and no drop in prices seems in sight.

A few are kicking on the bond issue to repair the Court House, but they should turn to the error of their way and help secure a suitable place in which to hold court and store the records of the county.

Again The Record warns parties to stay off the horse wagon when it is being hauled to a fire. It is not only dangerous but makes the load too heavy to get the wagon along at a rapid pace. Keep off!

Will Presch Sunday.
Bro. Tinder writes that he will fill his pulpit Sunday, at usual time, or will have Rev Willard to do so for him. Bro. Tinder is holding a very successful meeting at Clintonville, Bourbon county.

A special train was run by the L and N from Elizabethtown to Stanford Tuesday to accommodate those wanting to hear Senator McCreary's speech, and the coaches were crowded. A brass band made music and the crowd was a happy one, indeed.

Cooking Class at Work.
The cooking class, taught by Mrs Nannie Johnston, meets in the county court room, and is progressing nicely. Mrs Johnston is an expert instructor, and those composing the class are highly delighted with their progress.

Cheap Trip to California.
This office has a round trip ticket to California, either San Francisco or Los Angeles, which we will dispose of at a very low figure. Ticket good returning until Jan 1st, first class passage, will sell cheap if sold at once. Address J. M. H., care Central Record.

We trust our readers will pardon the use of so much political matter in this and recent editions of The Record. All of it is paid for at advertising rates. It costs money, and lots of it, to have type set and buy raw paper, and we must charge for printing communications.

Election Returns.
Election returns will be received at the circuit court room next Tuesday night. The room will be comfortably heated and good order preserved. Admission only 25c. Returns from all over the state, by both telegraph and telephone.

Posting Up.
Mr J. W. Elmore, who is to be cashier of the new Garrard Bank and Trust Co., has been Paint Lick this week receiving instructions in some of the latest and most up to date methods of banking used by Mr W. G. Kemper, who is one of the best cashiers in the state. Mr Elmore is a very popular man, and will make many friends for the new institution.

Erroneous Report.

Mr W. H. Taylor, of Gilberts Creek asks The Record to correct the report that he has stopped selling liquor at his distillery. You will be waited on any day in the week but positively not on Sunday. Mr Taylor, who has just returned from a trip North, is greatly improved in health, much to the gratification of his many friends, and they hope his relief is permanent.

The business men of several business houses at Symmes were destroyed by fire Monday morning.

County Judge Ford has had a row of fine trees placed around the courthouse. "Cousin Charley" Grimes, the veteran tree man, did the work.

Judge L. W. Bethurum, republican candidate for congress, spoke at the court house, Monday afternoon. His speech was highly complimented by those who heard it.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Bazaar on Saturday, December, 8th. Eatables, home made candy—useful and fancy articles for sale.

Lancaster friends extend deep sympathy to Mr and Mrs A. J. Rice on the death of their 15 month old daughter, who died at their home in Hedgeville, Sunday. The remains were buried at Stanford Monday.

Stage Line Sold.
J. D. Gulley has sold the Buckeye stage line to J. Bert Soper, who will take charge of same Monday. Mr Gulley has decided to move to Lexington and will have sale of household goods Saturday at two o'clock.

On next Tuesday, those who desire to vote in the State Primary will be expected to first go to the regular voting place and vote for Hon. Harvey Helm, the Democratic nominee for Congress, by putting the stencil in the circle under the rooster.

A Worthy Case.
The Record is requested to call attention of our people to the destitute condition of a widow lady, Mrs Mike Gallagher, who lives near the Henry Patterson place on Buckeye Pike. She has four children, is sick and in need of food and clothing. Any donations left at The Record office will be sent to her.

Prisoners Removed.

The Garrard county jail being unsafe since Ball sawed the bars of one of the cells, Judge Ford deemed it best to send East to Danville and Simpson to the Stanford jail. Lancaster officers delivered them to the jailors of these towns Monday night. The Danville News is off its trolley when it says, they were removed by reason of threat ened mob violence.

Saws Jail Bars.

Ollie Ball, charged with horse stealing, was cut out of the Lancaster jail and made his escape Saturday morning.

The saws were made of case knives, Ball was recently captured by Deputy Sheriff, "Dick" Moore, and was sent to the asylum, but made his escape and was again captured by Mr Moore.

It's a safe bet that "Dick" will soon have Ball behind the bars again.

Help to Housekeepers.

Zimmer's Restaurant has arranged to have soups of different kinds each day, and will supply families in any quantities, from five cents' worth up, fresh and hot. These soups are made of the very best materials, fresh and hot. Will have beef, vegetable and mock turtle soup ready for you on shortest notice. This will be a great help to housekeepers, and they will appreciate the enterprise. Send up your bucket and try it.

Only One Candidate.

The name of Hon R. H. Tomlinson, for mayor, is the only one on the town ballot to be voted for next Tuesday. There is a difference of opinion as to this being the proper time to elect a mayor, some claiming the appointment of Mr John M. Duncan holds until next year. Mr Tomlinson's friends are positive that the election next Tuesday will be legal. As there is only one name on the ticket, the ballot is very small, being about the size of a slice of boarding-house pie.

The Cooking School.

A large number of Lancaster ladies are taking advantage of the opportunity to become experts in the culinary art by attending the cooking school being taught by Mrs Nannie Johnston, in the county court room. The vexing servant problem alone is enough to warrant or rather force the good women to be coming experts in this line, while the opportunity of learning to prepare the many dainty dishes is seldom to be had in a country town. Mrs Johnston is conceded to be the best instructor in the state, and members of her class are more than delighted with their progress.

The price is only fifty cents a lesson, and pupils can enter at any time. The class will continue for two weeks longer. The following menu will be prepared on the dates given:

Thursday, Nov 1st.

Potato Rolls, Tomato Puree, Chick-en and Nut Timbals, Plum Pudding, Foamy Souce.

Friday, Nov 2nd.

Baked Fish with Parisienne Potatoes, Eggs a la Reine, Brains in border of Rice, Orange Pudding.

Saturday, Nov 3rd.

Fish Pudding with Pimento Trin-bals, Trin-bals shells, Pastry Crullers, Chocolate and Nut Fruit Cake.

Monday, Nov 5th.

Enjoyable and Profitable Meeting.

The Eighth Congressional District Teachers Association met in this city, at the Baptist church, Friday and Saturday. A great many teachers were here from adjoining counties, while nearly every one in Garrard was present. Prof Mannix, president, presided, and the program, as published in The Record, was carried out to the satisfaction and enjoyment of all present. The principal addresses were delivered by Hon J. Sullivan, of Rich mond, Prof H. K. Taylor, of Winchester, and Prof J. C. Lewis, of London. These addresses were greatly enjoyed not only by the teachers but by a great many of our citizens who attended the sessions. The next meeting will be held in Burgo. The following officers were elected President, Prof Clarence Adams, of Burgo; vice president, Prof C. O. Peratt, of Junction City; secretary, Miss Bettle M. Robinson, of Lancaster. The next meeting will be held until October, 1907.

Obituary.

Willie Smith, son of Jas Smith, died

Thursday morning, Oct the 25th after an illness of four weeks of typhoid fever.

He was born 28th of January 1890. He was nearing his 17th birthday. It seems a pity for one so young to be taken away from the arena of life, but the Book of Books says somewhere the good are taken from the evil to come.

And it intimates also that the world

indeed never set it that way.

Buy the testimony of the neighbors and especially those he worked for, Willie

Smith was a good, faithful boy. One business man in the town for whom he laborred said to the writer some days before he died, "Willie Smith was the best boy I ever saw."

Miss Sallie Tarlton

(the nurse) who was him ten nights and days before he died said

"I've seen many die but I never saw one so calm, peaceful and triumphant as he."

He was a wonder to Miss

Sallie, why? He knew God. He knew

Him in the forgiveness of sins and in keeping power. When I said to him ten days before he died, "How is your soul with your soul?" He turned his large dark eyes upon me answering "Brother

Williams, his presence is with me all the time and his will is mine."

He came to the clear knowledge of the fact some days before he died that he and was near these are the words of his prayer: "Lord Jesus you know how I am suffering here, take me to your self, put me in my mother's arms and let rest upon me."

He joined the Methodist Church in his seventh year, lived a Christian life the boy and

It will be gratifying news to the friends of Mr O T Wallace, Jr., who is now at Wilmington, N. C. in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line Rail way Co., to learn that he has lately been promoted to the position of Chief Clerk to Mr E Borden, Supt., of Transportation of one of the divisions of the store said R. B. Co., at a handsome salary. He had previously been in the employ of the same company at Wilmington, as stenographer, but about a year ago accepted a Government position at Washington with the Panama Canal Commission. About the first of October he will be returned to Wilmington, and is very much pleased with his position and surroundings. Mr Chenault Elmore, his cousin, is with him, and in the employ of the same Company.

Mr and Mrs Will Watking are rejoicing over the arrival of a son.

Rev Williams, of Lancaster, will preach at Pleasant Hill school house Sunday Nov 4th at 3 P.M.

Mr McWilliams was called to the bed side of his son at Mt Hebron, Sunday, who is reported in a very critical condition.

CONSUMPTION'S WARNING

Inside facts soon become evident in outside symptoms.—Da G. G. Green.

The aid of scientific inventions is not needed to determine whether your lungs are affected. The first symptoms can be readily noted by anyone of average intelligence.

There is no disease known that gives so many plain warnings of its approach as consumption, and no serious disease that can be so quickly read and checked, if the medicine used is Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which is made to cure consumption.

It is in the early stages that German Syrup should be taken, when warnings are given of the cough that won't quit, the cessation of the appetite, the taste, and the gradual weakening of the lungs, accompanied by frequent expectoration.

But no matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has already attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

GARDEN TRANPLANTER.

By Its Use the Plant and Earth Can Be Removed Without Disturbing Roots.

Some years ago I wished to extend our strawberry bed with the newly-formed plants, and as the conditions for transplanting in midsummer are not often favorable in central Kansas, where we then lived, I had to evolve a plan to move the soil with the plants, says a writer in the Rural New Yorker.

I had heavy tin cut in pieces 4 1/2 inches. I wanted a strong wire turned in along one side, but the tin was without the necessary machine and the best he could do was to turn the edges over twice, thus considerably strengthening the top of the tool. With a block of wood 3 1/2 inches square for a form the two ends of the tins were bent at right angles to the central part, thus forming three sides of a hollow cube. Armed with three dozen of these, garden trowel and a wheelbarrow, I proceeded to the patch. A tin with a good plant in the center was forced into the ground with the foot, the trowel inserted along the open side of the square formed by the top of the tin and the tin containing the soil and plant was lifted and placed in the barrow. Proceeding until a full cargo was obtained the barrow was wheeled to the plot previously prepared and the tins with the plants all set in their proper places. Then spreading the wings slightly the tins readily slipped off, leaving the plants set with roots not in the least exposed or disturbed. The work was rapidly done and with perfect success even in sunny weather. The tins lasted several years and I used them for other small plants, as cabbage and tomato. If the soil is loose and not well held by the tin bend the wings nearer together, making the open side narrower.
